Books

- The Art of Curating Worship: Reshaping the Role of a Worship Leader* by Mark Pierson – a good introductory text to thinking outside the box as a worship leader as well as creating prayer stations and alternative worship experiences.
- Let’s Kill Sunday School (Before it kills the church)* by Rich Melheim & Friends books 1 and 2 – Don’t be scared away by the “click-bait” title! This is a great book has a good intro to Cross+Gen worship and education with case studies for how it works in different settings. (Mine is in book 2)
